Re: United States v. Selwyn Barley, 24-cr-286 (ALC)
Request to Adjourn Status Conference with the Consent of the Government

Dear Judge Carter,

My office represents Mr. Barley in the above proceedings.

With the consent of the Government, I respectfully ask for one last adjournment of the status conference currently scheduled for October 17, 2024.

I submitted a mitigation package to the Government seeking a misdemeanor plea, which is not forthcoming.

Thus, our client needs time to speak to his family to consider the proposed disposition.

I would request an adjournment date for the second week of December to either have a plea or set a trial date.

I thank Your Honor for your time and consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

The application is GRANTED. The status conference is adjourned to 12/12/24 at 12 p.m. Time excluded from 10/17/24 to 12/12/24 in the interest of justice.
So Ordered.
